INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Sir:

In accordance with 37 C.F.R. 1.98, I am submitting a completed "INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT BY APPLICANT" (Form PTO/SB/08A) with patents and/or publications as delineated therein attached.

DE 38 39 657 discloses that the air-conducting system is intended, on the one hand, to prevent excessive heating of the components of the control apparatus and microwave apparatus by controlled conduction of vapours and cooling air and, on the other hand, to permit extraction of the vapours. To cool the components of the microwave apparatus and control apparatus, a cooling-air fan (7) is connected with its suction side to an air duct (8) in the region of the appliance rear wall (9), the components to be cooled being arranged in the pressure-side cooling-air stream. The extraction of vapours from the cooking chamber is effected via a vapour-extraction fan (16). A further fan (22), in the discharge-air stream of which there is arranged a closable cooking-chamber opening (23), is arranged at a location distant from the vapour-extraction opening (17). In microwave operation, air is passed into the cooking chamber via the cooking-chamber opening (23). The air-conducting system is suitable in particular for baking ovens with integrated microwave apparatus.
